Dear Provider:

The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene is beginning the fiscal year 2014 Administration-Sponsored Capital Program grant process. These grants are made available to eligible nonprofit providers through the sale of General Obligation Bonds by the State. These grants are for the construction, acquisition, renovation, and equipping of community mental health, addiction, developmental disabilities facilities; and federally qualified health centers. Completed applications are due April 6, 2012, and funding, if approved, will be made available after July 1, 2013. Please note that FY 2014 grant funding for new projects will be limited.

The application for Administration-Sponsored Capital Program grants is available through the Office of Capital Planning, Budgeting and Engineering Services. You may go online and access the application at http://dhmh.maryland.gov/ocpbes/SitePages/bond.aspx or e-mail me at AAwad@dhmh.state.md.us. If you cannot obtain an application online, please fill out the form below and mail or fax (410-333-5608) it to my office. Please call me at 410-767-6589 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Ahmed G. Awad
Administrator, General Obligation Bond Program
