

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

Rehabilitation Counseling Program

*Do you want to improve your expertise in assisting people with psychiatric disabilities
in their vocational recovery?*

Graduate Certificate in Professional Studies in Psychiatric Vocational Rehabilitation

PVR Certificate Program Features

- *One-year academic program: 12 graduate credit hours
- *Five dynamic courses filled with the latest in best practices
- *Courses offered online
- *Nationally recognized instructors and award-winning content
- *Full tuition award for some qualified, eligible applicants (see website more info)
- *Specifically designed for working professionals

PVR Certificate Program Course Schedule

Fall: Psychiatric Rehabilitation of People with Mental Disorders (3 credits)
Introduction to Counseling Skills (1 credit)
Spring: Job Development and Placement (3 credits)
Summer I: Substance Abuse Counseling (3 credits)
Summer I, II: Capstone Project (2 credits)

Admission Requirements:

- *Must be employed in an eligible community rehabilitation program
- *Must be working with people with psychiatric disabilities
- *Minimum of Bachelor's Degree, 3.0 Undergraduate GPA
- *Completed application, application fee, resume, and transcripts
- *Letter of support by direct supervisor and agency director
- *Regular access to a computer, internet, and email

For application
materials please go to:

Application Deadline
May 1

www.education.umd.edu/EDCP/PVR